The attachments in the Hungarian language listed below are available from the CIA Library:

Attachments:

(A) Circular, dated 28 February 1955, from the Brazilian desk of the Hungarian Ministry of Foreign Trade to all foreign trade corporations concerning a possible reduction of the exchange rate of Hungarian currency offered for sale on the stock exchanges in Brazil. (1 page)

(B) Circular, dated 11 February 1955, from the Interstate Department of the Hungarian Ministry of Foreign Trade to all foreign trade corporations concerning the various categories of Brazilian export goods and the changes in the exchange rate with corresponding increases in the price of goods. (2 pages)

(C) Administrative instructions, dated 15 February 1955, from the Accounts Department of the Monimpex foreign trade corporation concerning price leveling. (2 pages)

(D) Directive for propagandists of the trade unions organizations in Hungarian foreign trade enterprises concerning the "competition agreement" for 1955 concluded between three Hungarian foreign trade enterprises (Agrimpex, Monimpex, and Terimpex), one Czech foreign trade enterprise (Koospol), and one East German foreign trade enterprise (DIA-Nahrung).

The directive is intended to encourage "inter-enterprise competition" in fulfillment of plans, rationalization, innovations, and economizing in foreign exchanges. The prize to be awarded to the best foreign trade enterprise is the Interstate Socialist Work-Competition Flag (Államközi Szocialista Munkaversenyzászló). (4 pages)
